

Kwa-Zulu Natal, South Africa

Mr Price Home, a renowned provider of home goods, takes great pride in its South African heritage and consistently draws inspiration from the vibrant local art scene. In 2020, I had the privilege of showcasing my work within the Mr Price Home range. Angelika Anastasis Art adorned bedroom linen, decorative scatters, as well as delightful gift bags and cards. This work not only infuses the Mr Price Home range with authenticity but also highlights the brand's commitment to offering customers products that embody the essence of South African culture.

Cute when your son comes home from @mrp\_home with some cards he's seen at the store with your artwork. Sweet moment. Can't wait to see the cushions and duvet xx
